Defendants,

Argument

I, In Propria Persona, Cedrc Earl Hill Jr stand affirm and say that I am a disabled person under the Americans with Disabilities Act via 42 USC chapter 126 § 12101. I petitioner Cedrc Earl Hill Jr also stand affirm and say that I am unemployed. I am in a state of in Forma Pauperis and I am under economic duress. Pursuant to the preamble of the United States Constitution. The Constitution and the United States District Court were ordained and established by We the people to "Establish Justice, Promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our prosperity". Therefore, it is the obligation of the United States District Court to assure a disabled citizen of the continental United States, free access to this court and its proceedings. In the interest of justice, I request the clerk of the United States District court to file my petition, without payment of fees, costs or security and thereof.

"The right of access to the courts is basic to our system of government, and it is well established today that is one of the fundamental rights protected by the Constitution."

Ryland v Shapiro, 708 E 2D 967, 971 (5th Cir. 1983)

The district court's role is to ensure that the claims of pro se litigants are given "Fair and meaningful consideration."
